FAST FACTS...

The St. Herman's Youth Conference is an annual gathering of Orthodox youth.

With the blessing of His Eminence Metropolitan Hilarion and His Eminence Archbishop Gabriel of Montreal, its purpose is to provide an opportunity to learn more about the Orthodox faith while forming lasting friendships.

The Conference initially began in 1973 as an annual pilgrimage to Holy Trinity Monastery in Jordanville, New York.

As time has shown, St. Herman's has blossomed into a four-day gathering, filled with fun activities and spiritual renewal.

The Conference is held in a different location each year. Convening both in major cities and small towns, attendees are given the opportunity to explore new parishes and actively participate in church life, while learning more about the living Church.

In addition to daily activities, the conference offers opportunities for:

- Singing in the conference choir
- Serving in the Altar
- Volunteering in the local community
- Exploring the surrounding area

Past activities have included ice-skating, Christmas caroling, snowball fights, and of course, the annual talent show!

Come share the warmth of the services and enjoy the camaraderie with all who gather in honor of St. Herman.

ACTIVITIES...

Orthodox Youth travel annually from all over the world to attend St. Herman's Conference. Come join us! Typical conference activities include:

- Daily prayer
- Several keynote talks by notable Orthodox lecturers
- Divine services
- Age- and gender-specific discussions, forums, and workshops
- Panel-style Q & A with hierarchs and clergy
